

Criteria for Community Support

In order to be eligible for community support, the applicant must be a registered Canadian Charity or a registered BC Society and reside in an area in which Mink Chocolates does business. To qualify, the event or project must directly benefit the community. It should also serve one of the following main areas of focus:

- Arts & Culture
- Education
- Environment
- Health & Wellness
- Sport
- Youth

Those Ineligible for Support

Applications from the following will not be considered for community support:

- Organizations unable to demonstrate, in detail, their measures of success
- Any individual or business endeavors
- Professional sporting groups
- Groups who have already received a major donation or sponsorship from Mink in the current year
- Collection of funds for subsequent redistribution to other charities or individuals
- Promotion of political organizations and/or affiliated activities
- Expenses for expeditions or overseas travel
- Conference or seminars
- Salaries or operating costs

How to Apply

If your request fits the outlined criteria, prepare and submit a package by email only, to marc@minkchocolates.com, including the following:

1. A cover note that includes:
 - Name of organization
 - Contact name, phone number and email address
 - Event or project details including a full description, timelines and any additional sources of funding for the event/project
 - Recognition opportunities for Mink Chocolates
2. A completed Mink Chocolates Community Support Application Form ensuring:
 - All questions are completed in full
 - Incomplete applications will not be considered

Submitting the Application Package

Requests should be emailed at least eight weeks prior to the event or activity to:

marc@minkchocolates.com

Mink Chocolates is not responsible for any lost or misdirected application forms.

How are Applications Assessed?

Applications are reviewed on a monthly basis. Mink Chocolates reserves the right to make all final decisions on which groups receive what level of support. Due to demand, and our commitment to support a fair and equitable cross-section of as many community organizations as possible, not all applications are able to be approved.

Questions?

Please email marc@minkchocolates.com